

FLEXTOOL FLEXSHAFT CONCRETE VIBRATOR FVP SERIES

The Flextool Flexshaft Concrete Vibrator FVP Series is Australia's original series of immersion concrete vibrators, producing high-frequency vibration allowing for the efficient compaction of all types of concrete mixes. Operator safety and comfort are optimised with the rubber support sleeve and vibration counter spring. The Flextool Flexshaft Concrete Vibrator FVP Series has triple bearing technology and double oil seal protection for optimum performance and longer service life.
